A Psalm of Moses

_____ dwells in the secret place of the Most High and

He shall cover _____ with His feathers,
And under His wings _____ shall take refuge;
His truth shall be _____ shield and buckler.
_____ shall not be afraid of the terror by night,

A thousand may fall at _____ side,
And ten thousand at _____ right hand;
But it shall not come near _____.
Only with _____ eyes shall _____ look,
And see the reward of the wicked.
Because _____ has made the Lord, who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, _____ dwelling place,
No evil shall befall _____,
Nor shall any plague come near _____ dwelling;
For He shall give His angels charge over _____,
To keep _____ in all _____ ways.
In their hands they shall bear _____ up,
Lest _____ dash his or her foot against a stone.
_____ shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent _____ shall trample underfoot.
Because _____ has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver _____
I will set _____ on high, because _____ has known My name.
_____ shall call upon Me, and I will answer _____;
I will be with _____ in trouble;
I will deliver _____ and honor _____.
With long life I will satisfy _____,
And show _____ My salvation.
